MAISON SOUQUET
PARIS

• MAISON SOUQUET •

The Collection Maisons Particuliers consists of hotels designed as elegant mansions. Confidential and intimate, they reflect the spirit and soul of Paris. Privileging refined luxury over ostentatious, the houses invite to an experience of an extraordinary home, surrounded by the benevolent presence of a service that combines discretion and discernment. La Maison Souquet belongs to the Collection Maisons Particuliers.

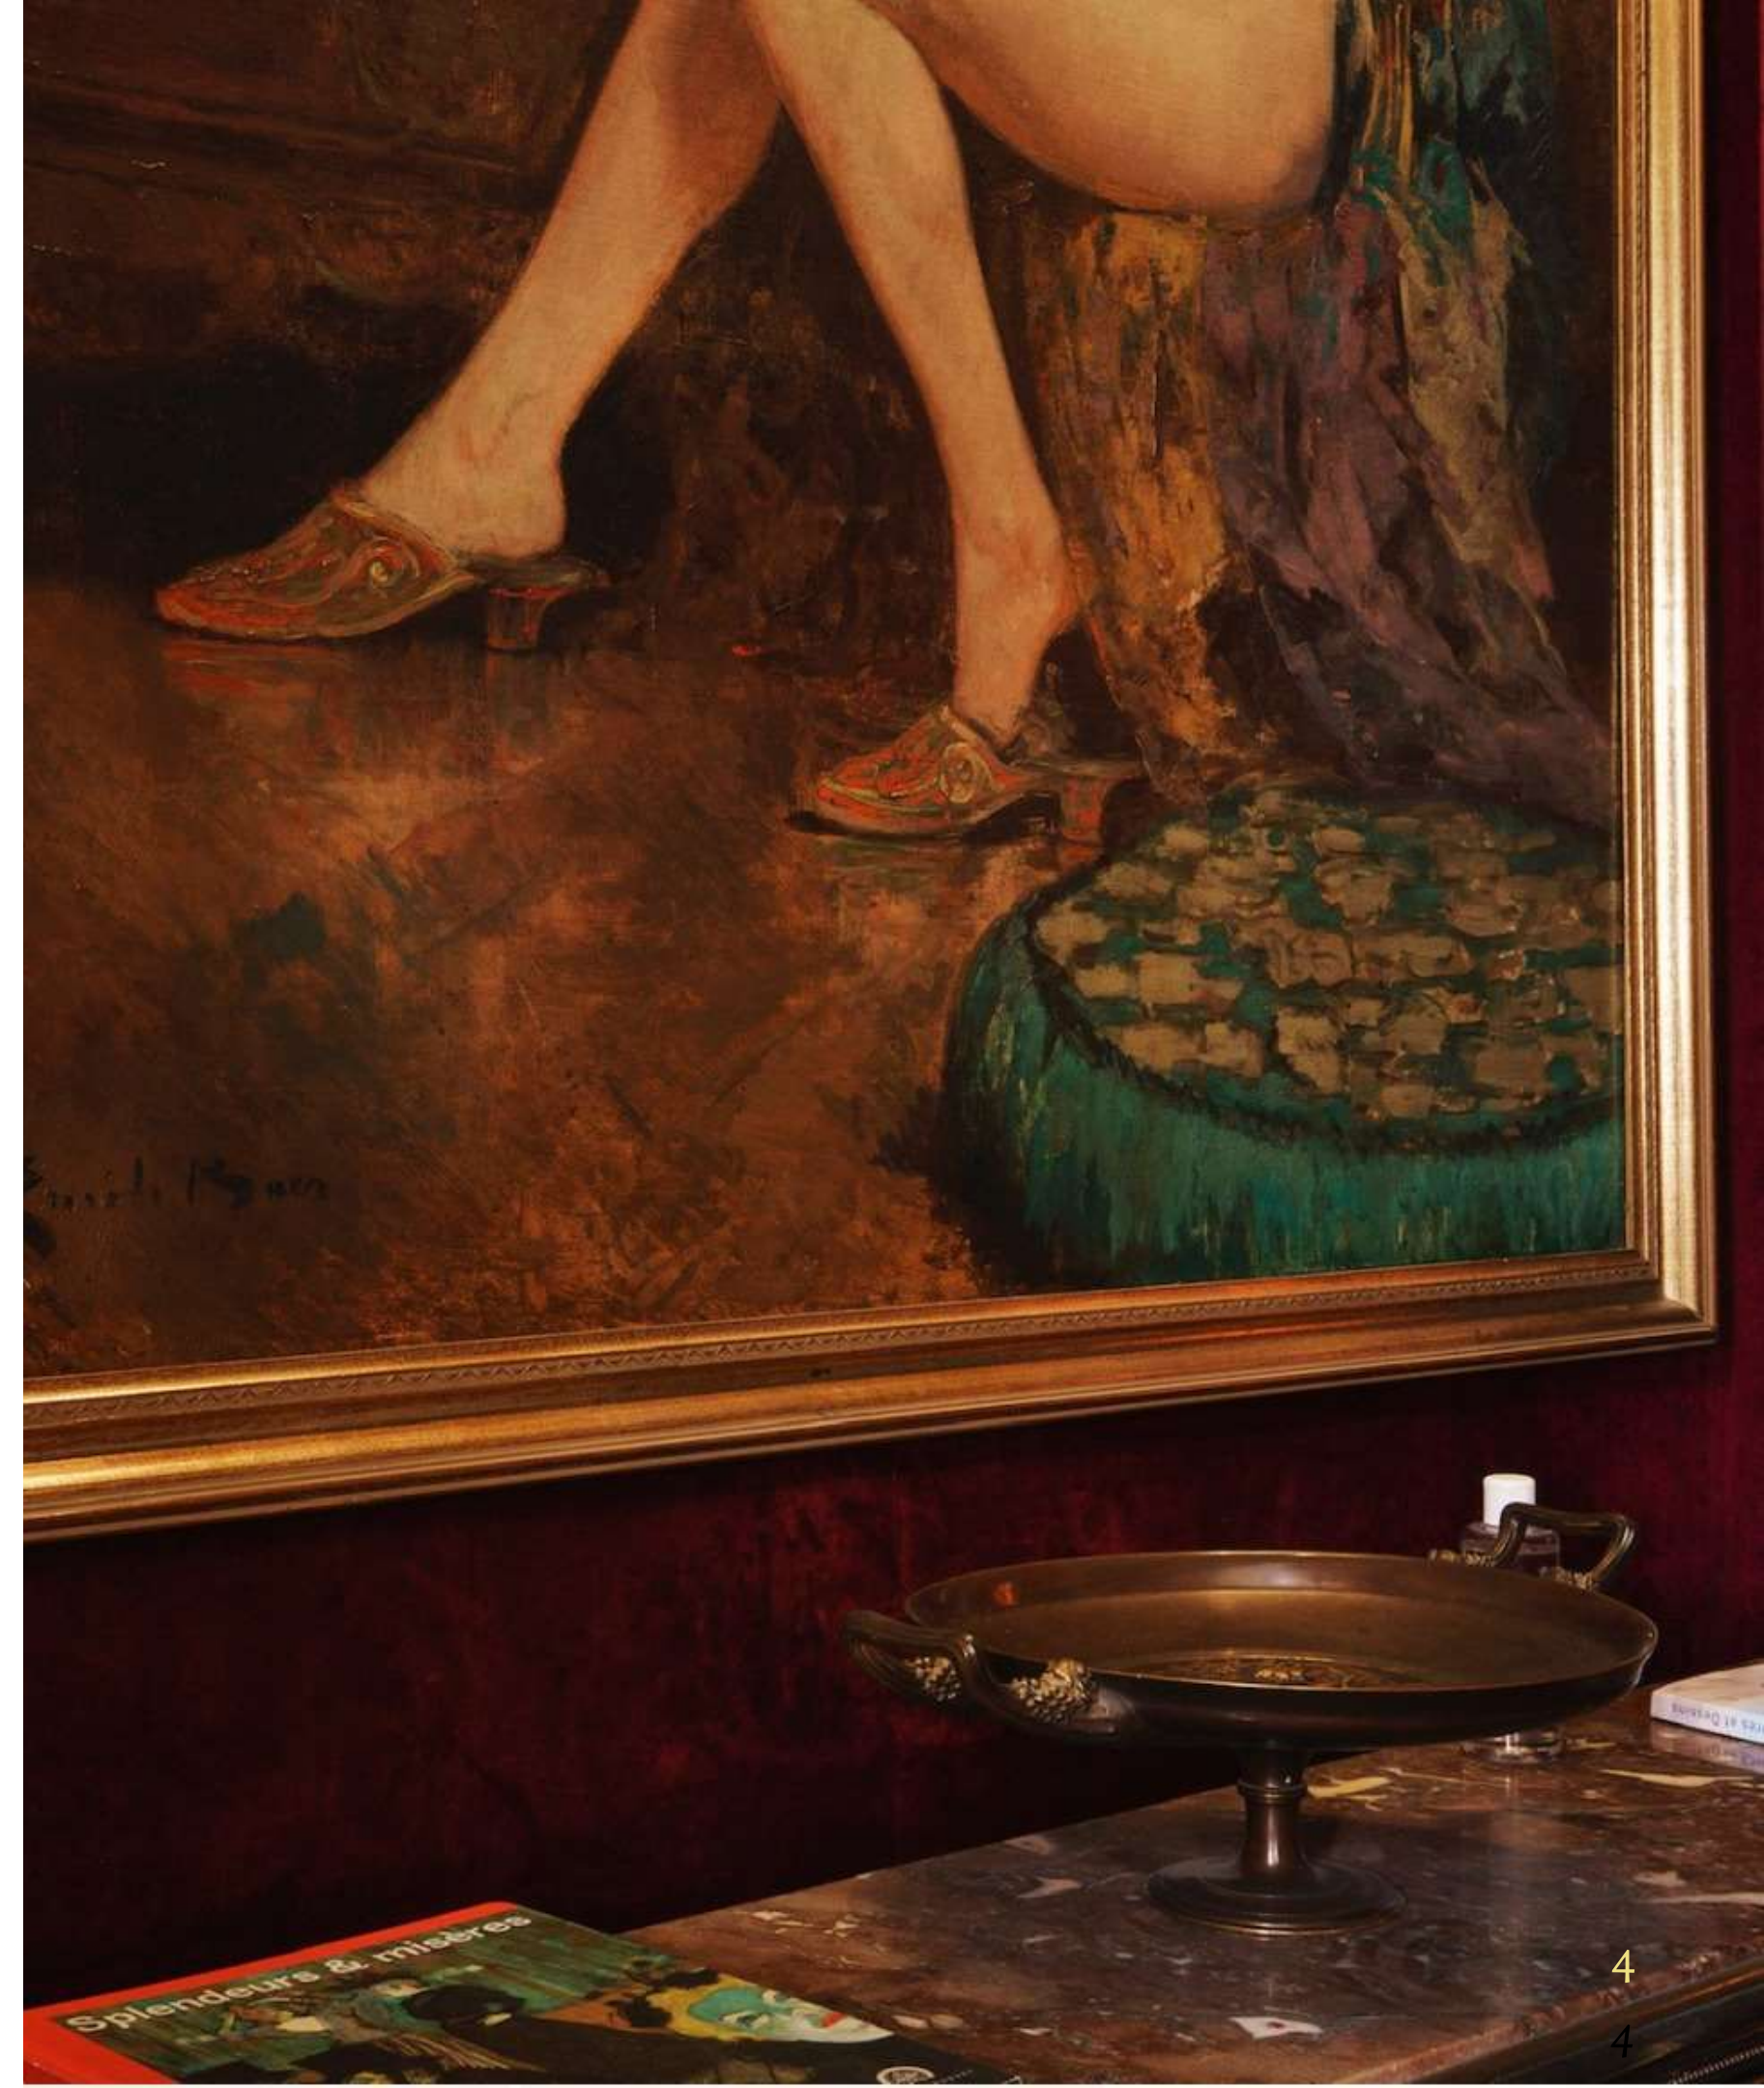

At the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries, brothels were the second home of the powerful and aesthetes. La Maison Souquet reproduces the sumptuous decor of one of them, a short distance from Montmartre and its famous mill. Behind a discreet facade, raised by two lanterns it reserves its luxury to the only initiates. La Maison Souquet is a confidential refuge, out of time, where it is good to immerse yourself in the splendour of the Belle Époque. The talent of Jacques Garcia restores here the mystery, the elegance, the exoticism, the sensuality and the incredible luxury of these establishments with well codified architecture. Small palace of hedonism 5 stars, the House Souquet reveals 20 rooms including 6 suites with unique decorations.

• LE SALON DES PETITS BONHEURS •

The bar makes the heart of the Maison Souquet beat. Shot like a library with its monumental fireplace, period books and games, it is a hidden bar of the city that animates day and night the life of the hotel. At once grandiose and intimate, it lends the majesty of its decor to a parade of exquisite flavors. A courtesan menu that declines the pleasures in cocktails, dishes and bottles with which it is necessary to get acquainted.

“In the current education of women, there are many more queens, duchesses and bankers than there can be, and many more courtesans than there should be.”

Alphonse Karr

• LE JARDIN D'HIVER •

In the perspective of the living rooms, the Winter Garden stands out from a wall teeming with ivy and jasmine.

Its canopy furnished with a comfortable circle of sofas leads to the outdoor smokehouse, where a swan-shaped bench seems escaped from the Malmaison.

"The humility of the courtesan in love includes magnificences that go up to the angels"

Honoré de Balzac
